

Blue, Red and Grey

Pete Townshend / The Who

Intro

Some people seem so obsessed with the morning

Get up early just to see the sun rise

Some people like it more when there's fire in the sky

Worship the sun when it's high

Some people go for those sultry evenings

Sipping cocktails in the blue, red and grey

But I like every minute of the day

Dsus4 D Dsus4 D Dsus4 D

I like every second

So long as you are on my mind

Every moment has its special charm

It's alright when you're around, rain or shine

I know a crowd who only live after midnight

Their faces always seem so pale

And then there's friends of mine who must have sunlight

They say a suntan never fails

I know a man who works the night shift

He's lucky to get a job and some pay

And I like every minute of the day

Dsus4 D Dsus4 D Dsus4 D

I dig every second

I can laugh in the snow and rain

I get a buzz from being cold and wet

The pleasure seems to balance out the pain

And so you see that I'm completely crazy

I even shun the south of France

The people on the hill, they say I'm lazy

But when they sleep, I sing and dance

Some people have to have the sutlry evenings

Cocktails in the blue, red and grey

But I like every minute of the day

I like every minute of the day
