

Sing For No-one

Kavisha Mazzella

Gm Cm
Before we were born, song was there
D7 Gm D7
She pulled us from the womb for us she cared
Gm Cm
And whispered in our ears life's mystery
D7 Gm Cm D7
And when we die she surely will be there

Gm Cm
Song says "Oh please use me, you're my voice,
you're my hands
D7 Gm D7
Fashion me into a melody
Gm Cm
That tells the human story, It's misery and glory
D7 Gm D7
Don't be silent that would be a tragedy!"

Gm Cm
Sing for no one sing for everyone
D7 Gm D7
Sing for we are servants of the song
Gm Cm
Sing for being together, never mind the weather
D7 Gm D7
Sing for no one sing for everyone!

Gm Cm
Our instruments the weapons of our choice
D7 Gm D7
To disarm oppression with our voice
Gm Cm
Though we make an orphans choir we set all hearts
on fire
D7 Gm D7
And angels weep as we do rejoice

Gm Cm
Sing for no one sing for everyone
D7 Gm D7
Sing for we are servants of the song
Gm Cm
Sing for being together, never mind the weather
D7 Gm D7
Sing for no one sing for everyone!

Gm Cm
We cry because there's evil in this world
D7 Gm D7
Watch the oyster as her art unfurls
Gm Cm
Why not turn your sorrow into a song tomorrow
D7 Gm D7
And let your tears become a string of pearls

Gm Cm
Sing for no one sing for everyone
D7 Gm D7
Sing for we are servants of the song
Gm Cm
Sing for being together, never mind the weather
D7 Gm D7
Sing for no one sing for everyone!
