White Wine In The Sun Tim Minchin

White Wine In The Sun Tim Minchin	And to feel ashamed and to judge things as plain F right or wrong
	But I quite like the songs
F I really like Christmas	F
It's sentimental I know	I'm not expecting big presents Bb6
But I just really like it	The old combination of socks, jocks and chocolate
I am hardly religious	Is just fine by me
I'd rather break bread with Dawkins than Desmond	Chorus
Tutu	Cause I'll be seeing my dad A Dm
To be honest	My brother and sisters, my gran and my mum
And yes I have all of the usual objections to	They'll be drinking white wine in the sun
C7	I'll be seeing my dad A Dm
consumerism Bb6	My brother and sisters, my gran and my mum
The commercialisation of an ancient religion To the westernisation of a dead Palestinian	They'll be drinking white wine in the sun
Press–ganged into selling Playstations and beer	Bb6 And you my baby girl
But I still really like it	My jetlagged infant daughter
F I'm looking forward to Christmas	You'll be handed round the room
Though I'm not expecting	Bb9 Like a puppy at a primary school
A visit from Jesus	Bb6
Chorus	And you won't understand
I'll be seeing my dad	But you will learn some day Bb6
My brother and sisters, my gran and my mum	That wherever you are and whatever you face Bb9
F Bb6 They'll be drinking white wine in the sun	These are the people A Dm
I'll be seeing my dad	Who'll make you feel safe in this world F Bb6
A Dm My brother and sisters, my gran and my mum	My sweet blue-eyed girl
F Bb6 They'll be drinking white wine in the sun	Bb6 And if my baby girl
F	When you're twenty one or thirty one
I don't go in for ancient wisdom Bb6	And Christmas comes around
I dont believe just cos ideas are tenacious	And you find yourself nine thousand miles from
It means they are worthy	home
F I get freaked out by churches	Bb6 F Bb6 C You'll know whatever comes
Bb6sús4 Some of the hymns that they sing have nice chords	Your brothers and sisters and me and your mum.
But the lyrics are dodgy	Will be waiting for you in the sun
And yes I have all of the usual objections to C7 miseducation	Bb9 C Whenever you come Your brothers and sisters Your counts and your uncles
Of children who in tax exempt institutions are taught to externalise blame	Your aunts and your uncles Your grandparents, cousins A Dm And me and your mum
	Will be waiting for you in the sun

F Bb6
Drinking white wine in the sun C Bb6
Darling when christmas comes F Bb6
Will be waiting for you in the sun C Bb6
Drinking white wine in the sun F Bb6
Waiting for you in the sun C Bb6 F
Waiting for you Bb9 C Waiting F I really like Christmas Bb6
It's sentimental I know F
